WANTS TO ABOLISH SCHOOL VACATIONS

Dr. O. H. Benson Declares Children Should Work At Useful Occupation.

LONG IDLING PERNICIOUS

Says Summer Months Destroy Good Results Achieved During School Year.

What the small boys of the nation probably will regard as a vital blow was struck by Dr. . H. Benson, of the Department of Agriculture at yes terday's meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association.

Dr. Benson said the youth of the nation should not be allowed to loll around, go fishing, and swimming during a three months' vacation period every year, but should be made to do some useful labor. The fact that the boys and girls of America do devote themselves exclusively to having a care-free good time con-stitutes waste, he said.

"The long summer vacation now given our boys and girls is one of the most serious handicaps for the building of good men and women." was the emphatic statement of Dr.

"There is a great opportunity for good or evil in this relaxation of rearly three months, but under the usual conditions all the good accomplished during the nine months.

A program for vacation has been outlined and tried out in Boy Scout circles which has proved a wonder-ful stimulus toward the making of hetter citizens, he declared. The usual relaxation at the beginning of vacation has been replaced by a sys-tem of speeding up.

Dr. Benson then told of the work of a summer achievement club, and illustrated it with photographs of the on taxation led to a spirited debate

Dr. Benson also emphasized the point that the schools should be con-sidered as the "distributing point of all community efficiency." There was an abnormal sentimentality abroad at present, he said, which in-sisted too much on the school as a "social center."

Pending prohibition legislation was brought into the discussion by the remark of Alexander H. Bell that 300 buildings formerly occupied by the liquor business are now vacant, and that the pasage of the Sheppard bill would mean the va cancy of addi-

Father Hagen, Formerly of Georgetown, Had Narrow Escape In Rome.

The story of how a former Washington priest, who for fifteen years was head astronomer at the George under surveillance for months by the Italian police and intelligence of-cers, came to Washington today in dispatches from Rome.

It illustrates the extreme precautions being taken by the European countries during these days of wars and rumors of wars, to safeguard its secrets and keep them from the hands Priest Had Narrow Escape.

The Rev. P. J. G. Hagen, who narrowly escaped arrest by the Italian police, left the Georgetown observatory in 1906 to become head astrono mer of the Vatican, which position he still holds.
